IOWA VOLLEYBALL

Hello! And welcome to the University of Iowa volleyball media guide!

When searching the country for the right school for you, I hope you find the information inside this media guide helpful and insightful. As a former student-athlete, I understand the importance of finding a school and a volleyball program that is the right fit for you. Your academic and athletic career deserves careful consideration, and I can guarantee both will receive thoughtful attention as you consider the University of Iowa.

Iowa is an outstanding university with a worldwide reputation of academic excellence. A member of one the finest academic and athletic conferences in the country, the University of Iowa features faculty and staff members who are committed to making your experience as a student-athlete a positive one. And you'll be able to do so in one of the greatest college communities the country has to offer. Iowa City is a classic college town that mixes the strength of a university with a small town environment that you'll be proud to call home.

The volleyball program at the University of Iowa continues to take steps towards the NCAA postseason while competing in the strongest volleyball conference in the country. Combined with an enthusiastic and experienced coaching staff, the volleyball team is built with student-athletes that value teamwork, dedication and commitment. The program is complete with a support staff that genuinely invests in the success of Iowa's student-athletes.

We're also fortunate to play our home games in the conference's largest volleyball facility -- Carver-Hawkeye Arena -- where we've set multiple attendance records in the last five years.

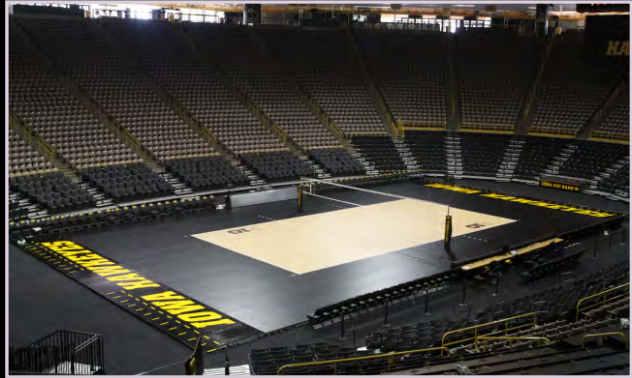

It is our hope that you will continue to consider the University of Iowa as a place for your future. Our program offers incredible academic opportunities combined with a Big Ten athletic experience that is unparalleled. The University of Iowa and the Iowa City community will provide all the necessary ingredients to make your academic and athletic experiences as rewarding as possible.

We hope you will share in the excitement about the University of Iowa and our program.

CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA

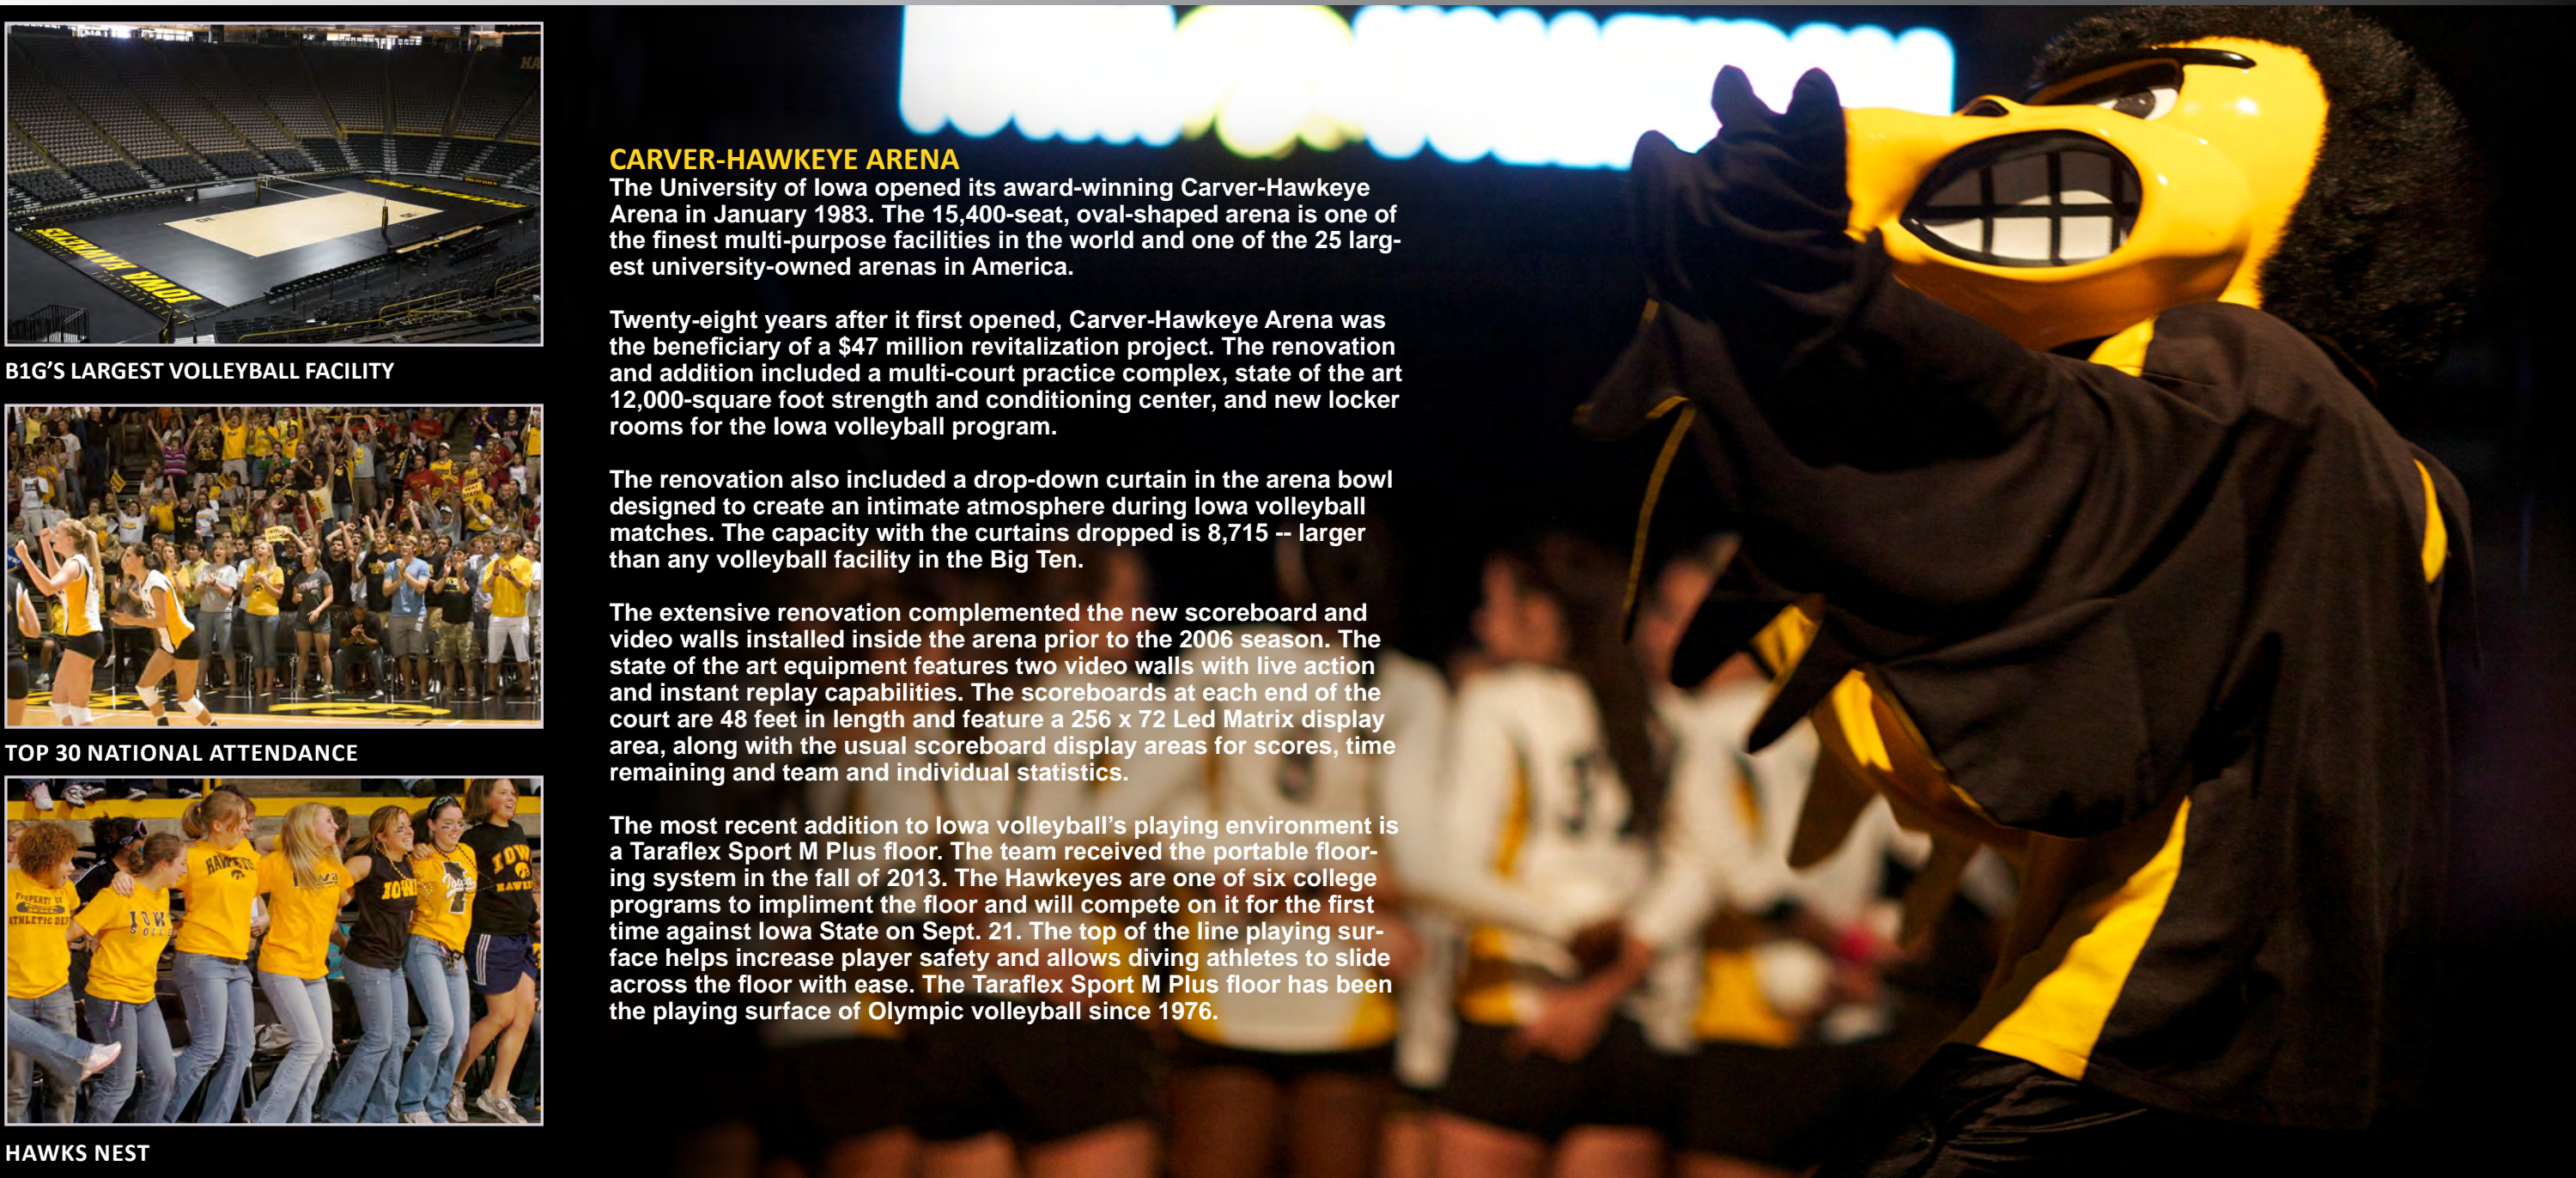

The University of Iowa opened its award-winning Carver-Hawkeye Arena in January 1983. The 15,400-seat, oval-shaped arena is one of the finest multi-purpose facilities in the world and one of the 25 largest university-owned arenas in America.

Twenty-eight years after it first opened, Carver-Hawkeye Arena was the beneficiary of a $47 million revitalization project. The renovation and addition included a multi-court practice complex, state of the art 12,000-square foot strength and conditioning center, and new locker rooms for the Iowa volleyball program.

The renovation also included a drop-down curtain in the arena bowl designed to create an intimate atmosphere during Iowa volleyball matches. The capacity with the curtains dropped is 8,715 -- larger than any volleyball facility in the Big Ten.

The extensive renovation complemented the new scoreboard and video walls installed inside the arena prior to the 2006 season. The state of the art equipment features two video walls with live action and instant replay capabilities. The scoreboards at each end of the court are 48 feet in length and feature a 256 x 72 Led Matrix display area, along with the usual scoreboard display areas for scores, time remaining and team and individual statistics.

The most recent addition to Iowa volleyball's playing environment is a Taraflex Sport M Plus floor. The team received the portable flooring system in the fall of 2013. The Hawkeyes are one of six college programs to implement the floor and will compete on it for the first time against Iowa State on Sept. 21. The top of the line playing surface helps increase player safety and allows diving athletes to slide across the floor with ease. The Taraflex Sport M Plus floor has been the playing surface of Olympic volleyball since 1976.

18 SEAT THEATER ROOM

LOUNGE AREA

The University of Iowa Strength and Conditioning Department is committed to providing the ultimate training experience for each Hawkeye student-athlete. Our focus is the development of the complete student-athlete through the use of proven scientific methods for reducing the risk of injury, as well as maximizing each student-athletes' athletic potential. Equally as important, our staff will foster a culture of relationship building in which we will seek to enhance the intangible character traits required for each Hawkeye to reach his or her championship potential on and off the playing stage.

We have four Goals in our Strength and Conditioning Program:

1) INCREASE ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

- Improve your game with better speed and explosive power

2) DECREASE RATE OF INJURY

- Significantly reduce your risk of joint and tendon injuries.
- Build the right strength and flexibility in the upper body to create not only better arm strength but healthier arms and shoulders.

3) INCREASE SELF CONFIDENCE

- There is a certain confidence in knowing you have prepared yourself and given yourself a chance to be successful.

4) IMPROVE MENTAL TOUGHNESS

- We will not be distracted and will develop the ability to focus on the task at hand and not be deterred by every day highs and lows

Maturity, consistency, and realizing their full potential is the trifecta University of Iowa head volleyball coach Sharon Dingman believes will help the Hawkeyes put together a successful 2013 season.

"I am excited about the year," said Dingman, who enters her sixth season as Iowa head coach. "Everybody is because once you have a season like we did last year, frankly you can't wait to get back on the court and get rid of everything that you feel from a year ago.

"We're looking for consistency. There were many matches last year that we would play a great set, but then we couldn't follow it up with the next set or the next set. We couldn't put three sets together to give us a chance to win. That's one of the things we hope for now that we have an older team."

The roster is packed with returning upperclassmen— four seniors and six juniors — including top kill leaders in junior Alex Lovell and senior Rachael Bedell, senior setter Nikki Dailey and senior libero Bethany Yeager. The Hawkeyes also welcome three newcomers and add several others who spent much of the 2012 season out with injuries, including right-side hitter Erin Radke. The squad's strength lies in its core of defensive specialists, led by Yeager, who has started every match of her Hawkeye career (95), played in 347-of-348 sets and enters the season fifth in career digs with 1,522.

With a strong group of returning attackers, Dingman expects to see the offense take large strides and give setter Dailey many options in 2013. Lovell has led the team in kills in back-to-back seasons tallying 382 in 2012 and 312 in 2011 and became the first Hawkeye to be named Big Ten Player of the Week since 2006. Bedell, who has steadily improved throughout her career and was second on the team in kills with 339, also returns and is ready to push herself even further. Dingman expects junior Alessandra Dietz to have more of an impact after a full year in the Iowa system and the return of Radke, who was sidelined with a knee injury after starting 10 of her 17 matches played as a freshman.

"We're going to have the opportunity to score more points, which we have to do if we're going to win," said Dingman. "Having Erin back is going to do that. Alex should be a more mature player this year, Rachael is ready to take on a much bigger role, and Erin Leppke needs to be a more mature player. Alessandra will score more points because our pins are going to be playing at a higher level."

The Hawkeyes open the 2013 season on the road with tournaments at Coastal Carolina (Aug. 30-31) and Valparaiso (Sept. 6-7) before returning to Carver-Hawkeye Arena for the Hawkeye Challenge (Sept. 13-14). Dingman says the preseason tournaments are vital in setting the tone for the season.

"Overall my expectation would be that we should have a more consistent performance," said Dingman. "Not just from set-to-set, but from night-to-night and throughout the season. That is the big piece I'm looking for — our maturity.

"The team is committed to what they want to see happen, and we have four seniors that want to leave their legacy."

NIKKI DAILEY
SENIOR

SETTERS

A mainstay returns at setter for the Hawkeyes in 2012 -- senior Nikki Dailey has started every match and played in each set of the 2012 and 2011 seasons. She paced Iowa with 1,103 assists in 2012 and 1,152 assists in 2011. Dailey enters her senior campaign sixth in Iowa history with 2,561 assists compiled in 95 career matches. According to head coach Sharon Dingman, Dailey's extensive experience as the starting setter can really help the team.

Sophomore setter Anne Yanda returns to the 2013 roster with some Hawkeye playing experience under her belt. She appeared in 10 matches as a freshman and dished out 71 assists in her 38 sets played in 2012.

"Anne is a great teammate," Dingman said. "She is a wonderful teammate and her role, whether she is on the floor as a setter or coming off the bench as a setter, is really important on our team. It goes so far beyond being a setter on the court. She helps the class below her."

Dingman also added an additional setter in freshman Alyssa Klostermann to the roster. The Dubuque, Iowa native was a three-time all-state selection and helped her club team to the 2012-13 Girls Junior National Championship. She was named MVP following the championship.

"Alyssa has a good understanding of the position, the role that that position plays and the responsibility that comes with it," Dingman said. "We're super excited about Alyssa from an athletic standpoint. I think she adds a whole new dimension of athleticism, not just to that position as a setter, but to our team. She's fast, she's athletic, she's a great competitor and she comes from a family of good competitors. We're excited for what we think Alyssa can do, not just this year, but for our program."

"Nikki has experience that Alyssa (Klostermann) and Anne (Yanda) don't have," Dingman said. "We're certainly counting on that to help her, help our team and help our younger setters. It's nice going in to a season with a setter with that much experience."

MIDDLE HITTERS

Iowa welcomes back junior Alessandra Dietz to the 2013 lineup. The middle paced the Hawkeyes in attack percentage (.234), blocks (81), and services aces (25) last season and with several key pins returning to the line up head coach Sharon Dingman sees Dietz making an even larger impact.

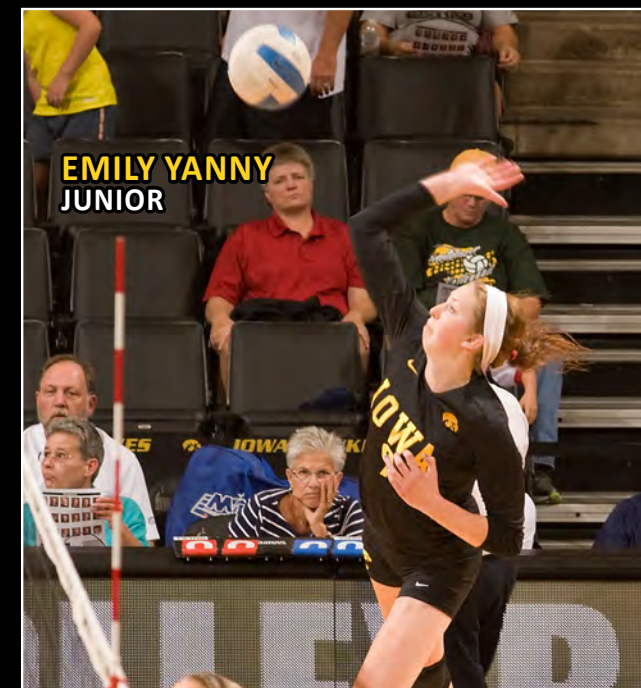

"I hope Alessandra looks at herself as having a bigger role, yet she was important to our team last year," said Dingman. "I think it got harder for her with the number of injuries we had last year. Where teams could really focus on Alessandra, as they should.

"She's an emotional player for us. She's the one that is going to be behind the wheel a lot driving our bus. We're excited to see what she can bring after a great summer. She played in the beach tournaments this summer and did well. She'll tell you that she learned a lot about what she doesn't know, which I think it is always good for any of us to learn what we don't know but for her particularly because she has two more years left of college volleyball. I think she'll take what she was able to experience this summer and help her grow her game indoor. Now she understands the things that she has to learn and she's embracing that. I anticipate Alessandra will have a very strong leadership role."

The Hawkeyes also regain junior Emily Yanny and sophomore Erin Radke. Both made in impact early in 2012 but were each sidelined with season-ending injuries.

Yanny played in nine matches last season with four starts last season. She compiled a season-high eight kills against South Dakota State and posted a perfect 1.000 attack percentage against Valparaiso

Radke competed in 17 matches with 10 starts as a freshman before her injury. She reached double digit kills on seven occasions in this span. On two occasions, she tallied a career-high 13 kills.

BETHANY YEAGER
SENIOR

DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

Senior Bethany Yeager has served as Iowa's starting libero for each of her first three seasons at Iowa. She enters her final year in uniform ranked fifth all-time with 1,522 career digs. The defensive specialist has started every match of her career and played in 347-of-348 sets.

Head coach Sharon Dingman sees Yeager as a leader on and off the court and is excited to see her help her teammates accomplish success. The Hawkeye head coach is also excited about the depth at this position.

"I think it's great from a competitive standpoint because they will be competing every week for playing time," Dingman said. "Each of them brings something a little different."

"Grace (Burns) is probably in that category with Bethany, great leadership, works super hard, really has overcome some adversity with her injuries. I think she like Emily is inspirational to our team in that sense. The players voted her practice player of the year at the end of the season last year, and I think that is just a tribute to what she means to this team. They understand how hard she works every single day and what she brings. But I think it is going to be a really fun, competitive environment for our (defensive specialists) this fall and I hope that they are ready to embrace the competitiveness and the environment that they are going to be in every single day."

The Hawkeyes have the most depth in the defensive specialists category. The full list includes seniors Yeager and Burns, juniors Kari Mueller and Katie Kelley, sophomores Kathleen Dailey and Julianne Blomberg, and freshman Corinne Gajcak.

OUTSIDE HITTERS

It is nice to have options, and that is exactly what Iowa has on the outside. The Hawkeyes return kills leader in junior Alex Lovell and senior Rachael Bedell who was second on the team in kills.

Lovell has paced the Hawkeyes in kills in each of her two seasons. She started every match of her sophomore season and has appeared in each match of her Iowa playing career. After helping the squad accomplish back-to-back Big Ten victories at Indiana and No. 12 Purdue in 2012, Lovell was named Big Ten Player of the Week on Oct. 8. She was the first Hawkeye to earn the honor since the 2006 season.

"All our opponents have to do is statistically look at our team from a year ago and they're going to see who got a lot of sets, who got a lot of kills for us when we won and that is what the game plan is going to be focused on, which it should be," head coach Sharon Dingman said. "So Alex's challenge is how much is she prepared to not just change, but improve her game. If she has worked on that over the summer and she is ready to continue to do that throughout the fall, I expect Alex is going to have a great season."

According to Dingman, Bedell is a player that has consistently improved each season at Iowa and is poised to make an even larger impact as a senior in 2013. Bedell appeared in every match of the 2012 season and started 26. As a junior, she set career-highs in several match categories, including: kills (26), total attempts (56), assists (three), aces (two), and digs (17).

Iowa also brings back junior Erin Leppke and sophomores Alli O'Deen, Julianne Blomberg and Kathleen Dailey, and welcomes freshman Lauren Brobst.

"Erin (Leppke) is a junior now and I think it's time for her to have some expectations for herself," Dingman said. "She's a nice athlete, a big jumper, and she got some experience because of the injuries last year. She needs to translate that into being a much more significant player offensively than she has been. We expect it but that has to come from Erin. I am excited for what Erin's year can be like if she's excited. So it should be good, it should be fun."

Blomberg was another who gained valuable playing experience following injuries. She started the last six matches of the 2012 season and set career-highs in aces (two), digs (10) and total blocks (two) in the season finale against Illinois.

Dingman sees freshman Brobst making an immediate impact and anticipates that she will log a lot of playing time in her debut season. Dingman is also excited to have Alli O'Deen back in 2013 at full strength.

SHARON DINGMAN
HEAD COACH
SIXTH SEASON

Sharon Dingman was named the eighth coach in the history of University of Iowa volleyball March 21, 2008. In five seasons at the helm of the volleyball program, she has imposed a winning attitude and established a volleyball culture that has Iowa fans excited about the immediate future.

The Hawkeyes faced another challenging slate in 2012, facing 16 eventual NCAA tournament teams, after taking on 18 in 2011. Dingman led a young Iowa team -- with only one senior -- to eight nonconference victories. Five Hawkeyes garnered all-tournament honors. She led Iowa to conference wins at Indiana on Oct. 5 (3-1) and at 12th-ranked Purdue on Oct. 6 (3-0). The victory in West Lafayette, Ind., marked Iowa's first win at Purdue and first sweep of the Boilermakers since Nov. 10, 2000. It also marked the fourth win over a ranked foe for Dingman, and her first victory over a ranked team on the road. No. 12 Purdue is the highest-ranked team the Hawkeyes have defeated during her tenure and the program's highest since defeating No. 11 Michigan at home in 2007 (Sept. 28). It also marked the first time Iowa won two-straight league contests since 2008 and consecutive league road matches since 2005. Purdue was one of seven Big Ten teams selected to the NCAA Tournament. Six league foes advanced to the Sweet 16 and two (Michigan, Penn State) represented the conference in the NCAA Final Four.

Dingman coached sophomore Alex Lovell to Big Ten Player of the Week honors on Oct. 8 for her efforts in the back-to-back league road victories. It marked Iowa's first Player of the Week honor since Sept. 18, 2006, when Melanie Meister received the recognition. It was also the Hawkeyes' first weekly honor since Christina Meister was tabbed Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 7, 2009. The Leonard, Mich., native equaled junior Rachael Bedell with a team-best 37 kills in the two wins.

Lovell finished the year with a team-high 382 kills, the most in a single season since Catherine Smale posted 441 in 2005. Junior Bethany Yeager totaled a career-best 533 digs in 2012 -- the most in a season since 2006, when Emily Hiza registered 545. Yeager became the 14th Hawkeye in program history to surpass 1,000 career digs in Iowa's season-opening sweep of Chicago State. She is fifth in program history with 1,522 career digs, moving up nine spots on the all-time list during the season.

Iowa also enjoyed a successful season off the court. Six Hawkeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten. The six selections are the most for the program since 2009.

In 2011, the Hawkeyes used their second of consecutive nationally recognized recruiting classes to continue building a program that will, in time, ascend up the Big Ten standings. Four Hawkeye freshmen combined to start 59 matches, and those four freshmen combined with four sophomores to total 62-percent of Iowa's starting lineup. The Hawkeyes' youth flourished in the nonconference season, racing to a 10-3 record and a pair of tournament championships.

In 2010, Iowa's four freshmen combined for 67 starts. The Hawkeyes started their freshman quartet four times, more than any other Big Ten school. Iowa kicked off the season with consecutive tournament championships and made program history by starting the season 3-0 for the second consecutive year.

Iowa knocked off No. 16 Michigan in Carver-Hawkeye Arena on Nov. 12, marking the third time in as many seasons Dingman and the Hawkeyes defeated a top 25 opponent.

In 2009, Dingman helped Iowa match the best start in program history by guiding the Hawkeyes to a 6-0 start. Iowa eventually became the first team in school history to start the season 7-0 on the road. The Hawkeyes captured five conference wins in 2009, raising Dingman's two-year Big Ten win total to 11, the highest two-year stretch for an Iowa volleyball team since 2000-01.

Iowa set season attendance records in each of Dingman's first two seasons as head coach, including averaging a school-record 1,632 fans in 2009, the 23rd highest total in the country. Since 2008, the Hawkeyes have experienced nine of the school's top 10 all-time attendance figures, and 18 of the top 21. On November 11, 2009, the Hawkeyes eclipsed the 3,000 mark for the first time in program history when 3,102 fans saw Iowa host top-ranked Penn State. Four of Iowa's top 10 all-time attendance figures came in 2011, as fans continued to pack Mediacom Court at Carver-Hawkeye Arena in year four of the Dingman era.

Dingman led the Hawkeyes to their most successful campaign in recent memory in her first season at the helm. Iowa's 14 wins in 2008 were tied for the most since 2000, and its six conference victories are the most since 2000. Dingman guided the Hawkeyes to a ninth place finish in the competitive Big Ten Conference, which was the highest finish for a Hawkeye squad since 2000.

Dingman's team set or snapped many streaks in a successful first season. Iowa won seven-straight matches, tying the fourth-longest winning streak in school history. The Hawkeyes also swept every opponent during the winning streak and won 15-straight sets. That was the longest set-winning streak since 1990. Iowa opened the conference season with wins over No. 18 Wisconsin and Northwestern, marking only the fifth time in school history that a Hawkeye team started 2-0 in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes also had a winning record inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena for the first time since 1998.

The Hawkeyes also snapped conference losing streaks in Dingman's first season. Iowa defeated Ohio State for the first time in 39 tries, dating back to 1988. That win also broke an 18-match losing skid on the road in Big Ten play. Iowa's upset win over No. 18 Wisconsin snapped a 26-match losing streak against the Badgers, which dated back to 1994.

Dingman set a personal milestone at Northwestern on Nov. 14 when she recorded her 350th career win in Iowa's five-set victory. Her career record stands at 391-316 in 22 seasons as a head coach. Iowa's match at Michigan State on Nov. 2, 2012, marked Dingman's 700th as a head coach.

Dingman came to Iowa after serving as head coach at Illinois State from 2000-07, where she compiled a 147-98 record. In 2007, Dingman led the Redbirds to their first at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament since 1997 after reaching the championship match of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament and finished with a 21-12 overall record.

Illinois State produced winning seasons in seven of the eight seasons under Dingman and never finished lower than fifth in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Redbirds also reached at least the semifinals of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament in six of her eight seasons. Dingman produced 21 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections, including Player of the Year, Libero of the Year and two Freshman of the Year honorees. Two players also garnered all-district and all-region honors.

In her first season at Illinois State, Dingman guided the Redbirds to a 20-9 record, including a 15-3 MVC mark. Illinois State finished second in the Valley and also reached the championship match of the conference tournament, narrowly missing an automatic NCAA Tournament bid after dropping a tough match to nationally-ranked Northern Iowa.

Dingman led the Redbirds to a record-setting season in 2004. She guided the team to 22 wins, which were the most since 1998 and broke a school record with 18-consecutive home victories. Two Illinois State players were named first team all-conference and one was an honorable mention AVCA all-District pick.

Dingman helped create a strong home court advantage in Normal. Five of the top 20 crowds in Missouri Valley Conference history occurred at Redbird Arena under Dingman, including a league-record 5,641 fans in a match against nationally-ranked Stanford in 2002.

Redbird teams under Dingman were also strong in the classroom. Eleven players were named to the league's scholar-athlete squad in her eight seasons and in 2004, four volleyball student-athletes earned perfect 4.00 grade-point-averages and the team recorded a 3.32 GPA. In 2005, her volleyball team won the academic award for the highest GPA in the athletics department.

Dingman started her head coaching career in 1991 at Auburn, where she led the Tigers to a 22-13 record in her only season at the helm. Her 1991 squad become the first Auburn volleyball team to receive votes in the national poll and the team's fourth place finish in the SEC that season marked the highest showing ever for Auburn at the time. Two student-athletes earned All-SEC honors, including Jenifer Kleyn, who was named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipient, who carried a 4.0 GPA.

She then moved to Butler in 1992, where she served as head coach for eight seasons. Dingman led the Bulldogs to four 20 win seasons and three postseason tournaments, including an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 1997 after capturing the Midwestern Collegiate Conference title. She was named MCC Coach of the Year in 1997 after compiling a 28-7 record. Dingman guided three student-athletes to MCC Player of the Year honors, seven to all-region accolades and five to "Top 100 Student" honors at Butler.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Dingman spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at three Division I programs. After one season at Northern Michigan (1984), she assisted at Texas Tech for three seasons (1985-87). Dingman then spent three seasons at Kentucky (1988-90) and helped the Wildcats to an SEC Championship in 1988 along with three-straight regional finals appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Dingman has become one of the most respected volleyball coaches in the nation after her work off the court. She was a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association Board of Directors for seven years and has actively served on many other sport-related committees. She volunteered to support the Special Olympics, the Council of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators and the Citizens for Sports Equity. She was named an Outstanding Young Women of America in 1989 and served as a volunteer at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

Her playing career included back-to-back Big Ten championships at Purdue (1979-80) before transferring to Northern Michigan, where she served as team captain and most valuable player. She earned her bachelor's degree in health sciences from Northern Michigan in 1984 and attended graduate school at Kentucky (1988-90), completing course work toward her master's degree in health education.

Along with her career in volleyball, Dingman earned a gold medal in team handball at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival and was invited to train with the U.S. national handball team in 1987. She also has completed five marathons.

BEN BOLDT
ASSISTANT COACH
FIFTH SEASON

Ben Boldt enters his fifth season as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa in 2013. Boldt also serves as Iowa's recruiting coordinator.

The Hawkeyes faced another challenging slate in 2012, facing 16 eventual NCAA tournament teams, after taking on 18 in 2011. Boldt helped coach a young Iowa team -- with only one senior -- to eight nonconference victories. Five Hawkeyes garnered all-tournament honors. He led Iowa to conference wins at Indiana on Oct. 5 (3-1) and at 12th-ranked Purdue on Oct. 6 (3-0). The victory in West Lafayette, Ind., marked Iowa's first win at Purdue and first sweep of the Boilermakers since Nov. 10, 2000. It also marked the third win over a ranked foe during his time at Iowa, and his first victory over a ranked team on the road. No. 12 Purdue is the highest-ranked team the Hawkeyes have defeated during his tenure and the program's highest since defeating No. 11 Michigan at home in 2007 (Sept. 28). It also marked the first time Iowa won two-straight league contests since 2008 and consecutive league road matches since 2005. Purdue was one of seven Big Ten teams selected to the NCAA Tournament. Six league foes advanced to the Sweet 16 and two (Michigan, Penn State) represented the conference in the NCAA Final Four.

Boldt coached sophomore Alex Lovell to Big Ten Player of the Week honors on Oct. 8 for her efforts in the back-to-back league road victories. It marked Iowa's first Player of the Week honor since Sept. 18, 2006, when Melanie Meister received the recognition. It was also the Hawkeyes' first weekly honor since Christina Meister was tabbed Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 7, 2009. The Leonard, Mich., native equaled junior Rachael Bedell with a team-best 37 kills in the two wins.

Lovell finished the year with a team-high 382 kills, the most in a single season since Catherine Smale posted 441 in 2005. Junior Bethany Yeager totaled a career-best 533 digs in 2012 -- the most in a season since 2006, when Emily Hiza registered 545. Yeager became the 14th Hawkeye in program history to surpass 1,000 career digs in Iowa's season-opening sweep of Chicago State. She is fifth in program history with 1,522 career digs, moving up nine spots on the all-time list during the season.

Iowa also enjoyed a successful season off the court. Six Hawkeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten. The six selections are the most for the program since 2009.

In 2011, Boldt helped a young Hawkeye team capture a pair of nonconference tournament championships en route to a 10-3 nonconference record.

In the summer of 2010, Boldt served as an assistant coach for USA Volleyball, and in the spring of 2011, he was among the staff personnel at the U.S. Women's National Team tryouts.

In his second season in charge of backrow defenders, Boldt helped Bethany Yeager become the first Hawkeyes freshman in five years to lead the team in digs.

In his first season with the Hawkeyes, Boldt helped lead the team to six straight wins to start the season, a mark that matched the best program start in school history. He was instrumental in leading a Hawkeye defense that ranked third in the Big Ten in digs per game. Boldt also coached first-year libero Christina Meister, who ranked second in the conference in digs per game and became Iowa's first Big Ten Player of the Week since 2006.

Boldt, a native of Hickman, Neb., came to Iowa after serving two years as an assistant coach at Alabama. In his first season, Boldt helped the Crimson Tide to its third-straight NCAA Tournament berth, and its third overall NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. Boldt also coached middle blocker Crystal Hudson to All-America honors, and helped bring in Alabama's first top 30 recruiting class.

Boldt was honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) in the spring of 2009 when he was given the "Thirty Under 30 Award." The "Thirty Under 30 Award" was established so the volleyball community could spotlight up-and-coming professionals in the sport at all levels of the game, including high school and all NCAA Divisions.

Boldt served as a staff assistant for five seasons at the University of Nebraska while pursuing his degree, prior to joining the Alabama staff. While at Nebraska, Boldt was a part of one of the most successful programs in NCAA history. Nebraska won five Big 12 championships and advanced to the National Semifinals three times. In his final season at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers finished 33-1 at were crowned NCAA champions after knocking off Stanford in the title game.

While at Nebraska, Boldt served as a coach for USA Volleyball at numerous levels. He was a USA Youth National Team coach in 2005-06, and was also a part of the A2 team in 2004.

Boldt also has experience coaching at the club level. He served as head coach for the Iowa Rockets club for three years. He was also a head coach for both the Challenger Volleyball Club from 2000-04 and the Nebraska Juniors from 2005-06.

Boldt is married to current Hawkeye assistant coach Angie Boldt.

ANGIE BOLDT
ASSISTANT COACH
SIXTH SEASON

Angie Boldt is in her sixth season with the University of Iowa volleyball program in 2013, and her first as assistant coach. Boldt completed her fifth season as director of volleyball operations at Iowa in 2012.

“Angie’s familiarity with the program and the student-athletes is tremendous,” said head coach Sharon Dingman. “The thing I am most excited about, for the student-athletes, the fans, and everyone is to get to experience the knowledge that Angie brings to the game of volleyball. To have her in this role, now we can utilize her and her full volleyball mind. She has a great volleyball mind. Now we can put it to use in the gym; everyone will benefit.”

“I am thrilled that coach Sharon Dingman and the University of Iowa have given me this great opportunity,” said Boldt. “I have been with Iowa volleyball for five seasons and believe in the foundation and leadership that Sharon has built for this program.

“I look forward to teaching and inspiring our student-athletes and working alongside Sharon to help this program achieve its ultimate goals. It’s an exciting time to be a part of Iowa volleyball, and I am grateful to be a part of the journey.”

Boldt came to Iowa after serving as a graduate assistant with volleyball operations at the University of Alabama from 2006-08. She helped lead the Crimson Tide to the NCAA Tournament during both of her seasons in Tuscaloosa. Alabama has advanced to the tournament three times in school history.

Prior to her stint at Alabama, Boldt was a student worker for volleyball operations at the University of Nebraska from 2003-06. During her time, the Cornhuskers were a perennial top-five program and won the 2006 NCAA national championship.

Boldt has extensive coaching experience at the club level. She served as both an assistant and co-head coach for the South Central Volleyball Club in St. Paul, Neb., from 2003-06. The team advanced to nationals in 2003. Boldt taught private lessons at the Nebraska Volleyball Academy in Lincoln, Neb., in 2006 and served as both an assistant and co-head coach for the Club Crimson Volleyball Club in Tuscaloosa, Ala. She helped start the club -- the first in Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Boldt has also served as a coach for the Iowa Rockets Volleyball Club, based in Eastern Iowa. She has led the Rockets to nationals in each of the last four years, including fifth place finishes in 2009 and 2011.

The St. Paul, Neb., native graduated from Nebraska in 2006 with a degree in education and human sciences, with endorsements in natural sciences and coaching. She received her master’s in sport management from Alabama in the spring of 2008.

Boldt is married to Iowa volleyball assistant coach Ben Boldt.

TANJA SPEAKER
DIR. OF OPERATIONS
FIRST SEASON

Tanja Speaker is in her first year as a member of the University of Iowa volleyball staff in 2013. She serves as director of volleyball operations.

"She has a great skill set," said Dingman. "I like her involvement in a number of different areas of athletics, and I am really excited about what she is going to bring to our staff."

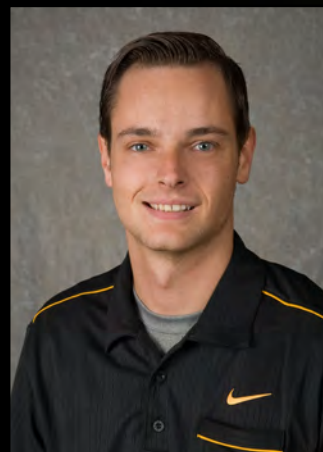

Speaker has served as a game operations assistant for Texas Stars Hockey since October of 2012 and as a front desk agent at the AT&T Executive Education and Conference Center in Austin, Texas, since January of 2012. She worked with Spurs Sports & Entertainment as an Austin Toros Inside Sales Representative from July, 2011 to January of 2012. Speaker also worked as an intern with the AFL's Milwaukee Mustangs during the summer of the 2011.

In 2009 and 2011, she worked as a coach at Crystal Lake Central High School in Crystal Lake, Ill. Speaker coordinated basketball camps and coached 10th grade girls.

Speaker earned her bachelor of science in sport management from Florida Southern College in May of 2011. She graduated Summa Cum Laude with honors.

At Florida Southern, Speaker was a member of the varsity basketball team, serving as team captain from 2010 to 2011. She was named NCAA-II Academic All-District and earned the NCAA-II Academic Achievement Award. Speaker was a three-time Sunshine State Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll honoree. She was also a member of the Sport Management Club, serving as president from 2010 to 2011, and the Honors Program.

ADAM ROLLMAN
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON

Adam Rollman is in his second season as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Iowa in 2012. He serves as an offensive and defensive assistant.

The Hawkeyes faced another challenging slate in 2012, facing 16 eventual NCAA tournament teams, after taking on 18 in 2011. A young Iowa team -- with only one senior -- won eight nonconference matches. Five Hawkeyes garnered all-tournament honors. Rollman helped Iowa to conference wins at Indiana on Oct. 5 (3-1) and at 12th-ranked Purdue on Oct. 6 (3-0). The victory in West Lafayette, Ind., marked Iowa's first win at Purdue and first sweep of the Boilermakers since Nov. 10, 2000. No. 12 Purdue is the highest-ranked team the Hawkeyes have defeated since defeating No. 11 Michigan at home in 2007 (Sept. 28). It also marked the first time Iowa won two-straight league contests since 2008 and consecutive league road matches since 2005. Purdue was one of seven Big Ten teams selected to the NCAA Tournament. Six league foes advanced to the Sweet 16 and two (Michigan, Penn State) represented the conference in the NCAA Final Four.

Rollman helped sophomore Alex Lovell to Big Ten Player of the Week honors on Oct. 8 for her efforts in the back-to-back league road victories. It marked Iowa's first Player of the Week honor since Sept. 18, 2006, when Melanie Meister received the recognition. It was also the Hawkeyes' first weekly honor since Christina Meister was tabbed Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 7, 2009. The Leonard, Mich., native equaled junior Rachael Bedell with a team-best 37 kills in the two wins.

Lovell finished the year with a team-high 382 kills, the most in a single season since Catherine Smale posted 441 in 2005. Junior Bethany Yeager totaled a career-best 533 digs in 2012 -- the most in a season since 2006, when Emily Hiza registered 545. Yeager became the 14th Hawkeye in program history to surpass 1,000 career digs in Iowa's season-opening sweep of Chicago State. She is fifth in program history with 1,522 career digs, moving up nine spots on the all-time list during the season.

Rollman graduated from the University of Nebraska in 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in international studies and political science. He was a four-year starter on the Nebraska club volleyball team, and he served as the club's president and floor captain during his senior season.

Rollman was a student assistant coach at Nebraska Wesleyan in 2011, helping the Prairie Wolves to a 16-12 record. He was a practice player and student manager for Nebraska in the spring of 2012.

The Barta family includes Gary, Madison, Connie and Luke.

GARY BARTA ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Now in his eighth year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa, Gary Barta continues to provide the UI's more than 600 student-athletes, in addition to more than 225 coaches, administrators and support staff, the strong leadership and strategic vision that is the foundation for the Hawkeyes' success both today and in the future.

Barta often notes, "Hope is not a strategy," and evidence of his commitment to planning and execution is his second strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department. The latest "road map" addresses the next five years for the Hawkeyes and is built on the same core tenets contained in the first: Win. Graduate. Do it right.

The Hawkeyes are coming off a 2012-13 athletics year that saw eight programs participate in national championship competition, a record-setting year in terms of graduation rates – 77 percent, and steady progress in terms of facility improvements, highlighted by the opening of the new indoor practice facility for the UI's football program and the Hoak Family Golf Complex at Finkbine Golf Course, home of the Hawkeyes' men's and women's golf programs.

Under Barta's direction, the UI will continue to put into place the infrastructure that will provide the foundation for competitive success. The 2012-13 basketball season provides an outstanding example of the impact state-of-the-art facilities can have on a program. Boosted by a new practice facility and an enhanced strength and conditioning facility – two pieces of Barta's first strategic plan for the UI – Fran McCaffery's Iowa men's basketball team won 25 games and advanced to the championship game of the 2013 National Invitation Tournament. Lisa Bluder's Iowa women's basketball team earned its sixth consecutive invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

Another example of investments made under Barta's direction that have helped Iowa turn the corner competitively is the UI men's golf program. Barta increased his commitment to the sport when he hired native Iowan Mark Hankins, who had a vision for the program that included a new practice facility. Barta, Hankins and the Hawkeyes celebrated the opening of the new $6 million Hoak Family Golf Complex in February, just three months before Hankins' nationally ranked squad made its fifth straight appearance in the national regional championships.

Women's basketball and men's golf are two of the eight UI programs that participated in national championship competition in 2012-13. At the top of the list was Tom Brands' wrestling program, which crowned one national champion, had four wrestlers earn All-America honors, and finished fourth nationally at the end of a season that included a Big Ten Conference Dual Meet championship.

JD Reive's men's gymnastics team had three individuals earn All-America honors after finishing fifth at the national meet. Larissa Libby's women's gymnastics program advanced to NCAA regional competition for the sixth straight season.

The Iowa field hockey program under the direction of Tracy Greisbaum advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament over the last nine years and 22nd in school history – a total that ranks No. 1 among the Hawkeyes' Big Ten Conference peers. Two Hawkeyes were named All-Americans.

Iowa's 200 and 400 medley relay teams and backstroker Grant Betulius earned All-America honors while leading Marc Long's men's swimming and diving team to a 32nd place at the national championship. Larry Wiczorek's UI track and field program crowned eight All-Americans en route to placing 35th at the national outdoor championship.

Interest in the Hawkeyes continues to soar. Sellouts for home games of the football team at historic Kinnick Stadium and a waiting list for access to the premium seating areas inside the Paul W. Brechler Press Box are the norm. So, too, is Iowa leading the country in attendance at home wrestling events -- Iowa averaged just under 9,000 fans per home dual match in 2012-13 -- and being ranked among the nation's Top 20 in attendance in women's basketball.

Success on the court has also resulted in spinning turnstiles for home games of the UI men's basketball team. The Hawkeyes' run to New York City's Madison Square Garden and the NIT championship game included a pair of sold out games on Mediacom Court in 15,400-seat Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Those two sellouts, paired with three regular season sellouts, helped to push Iowa's total average per game to 13,625, an improvement of more than 1,700 per game that has pushed the Hawkeyes into the nation's Top 25 in per game attendance.

Under Barta's leadership, Iowa has also embraced new technologies and that, too, has paid dividends: Iowa ranks among the nation's Top 10 in Facebook "friends" and Twitter "followers." The UI also delivers Hawk Talk Daily, a daily e-newsletter, and Hawk Talk Monthly, a monthly e-magazine, to more than 70,000 friends of the UI and fans of the Hawkeyes to complement the news, information, video and photography available on hawkeyesports.com, the official world wide web site of the Iowa Hawkeyes and the UI's anchor in the digital world.

Academically, Iowa continues to achieve at a pace that sets the bar across the state and competes favorably with its peers in the Big Ten Conference. UI student-athletes set new records for academic achievement, according to data released by the NCAA in October 2012, as part of its annual report on the work in the classroom by student-athletes across the country.

Student-athletes that entered the UI in the fall of 2005 graduated at a rate of 77 percent, an all-time record for the Hawkeyes. That mark - which uses the federal government benchmark for graduation success -- is three points better than the 2011 report when Iowa tied the previous school record of 74 percent set first in 1994-95. It is also six points better than the UI student body and 12 points better than that achieved all by student-athletes nationally.

The UI also set a new record by posting a score of 87 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate" or GSR, one point better than what was posted the previous year. It marked the seventh time in the eight years of the GSR's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

The NCAA's Academic Progress Rate report for 2012-13 revealed that for the fourth consecutive year all of Iowa's 24 sports programs were comfortably above the 930 threshold that signals a red flag for the NCAA. The highlights of Iowa's report include APR's for 18 of Iowa's programs that were better than the national average in that sport, including football, men's basketball and wrestling. The APR for Iowa's football program — 961 — was an all-time best.

As noted, Barta has been the driving force behind substantial investments in the facilities used by Iowa's talented male and female student-athletes. When the Iowa football program moves into its new $54 million operations center in late summer 2014, the UI will have completed more than $220 million of construction and renovation work over the previous eight years.

That list of projects includes a $47 million facelift and addition to Iowa's award-winning Carver-Hawkeye Arena, a project that directly impacted 23 of Iowa's 24 sports programs, two phases of improvements to the facilities used daily by Iowa's football program — construction of a new indoor practice facility and renovation of the Kenyon Outdoor Practice facility in Phase I, and construction of a state-of-the-art operations center in Phase II, a $9 million investment in scoreboards, ribbon boards, and video walls at historic Kinnick Stadium, construction of the aforementioned $6 million Hoak Family Golf Complex at Iowa's award-winning Finkbine Golf Course, turf replacement at Grant Field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program, resurfacing of the courts at the Klotz Tennis Center, the home of Iowa's men's and women's tennis programs, and the construction of a new indoor turf facility.

On the horizon for Barta, from a facilities perspective, is the planning and construction of the "Hawkeye Campus." Located on the western edge of the UI campus, immediately west of Finkbine Golf Course and adjacent to the UI's Athletics Hall of Fame, the practice and competition sites for Iowa's soccer and field hockey programs, and the UI Sports Medicine Clinic, and near the UI's Ashton Cross Country Course, the Hawkeye Campus is envisioned to be the new home for Iowa's track and field, softball, and baseball programs.

Barta is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (15) and a daughter, Madison (13). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

Playing volleyball at the University of Iowa not only allows student-athletes the opportunity to compete in the nationally recognized Big Ten Conference. It also provides a chance to reach the next level of competition and expose your talents internationally.

In 2011, Rachael Bedell and Bethany Yeager represented the University of Iowa and the United States while competing for Team USA. Bedell helped lead USA Volleyball Women's Junior A2-Europe Program to the Gold medal at the European Global Challenge.

Yeager reached the semifinals and captured a bronze medal while competing for USA Volleyball Women's Junior Program.

Iowa assistant coach Ben Boldt has also served time as an assistant coach for USA Volleyball and helped lead the Women's Junior A2 Program through the USA Volleyball High Performance Championships in 2010.

Erin Radke
Sophomore

"I grew up in a family that's from Northwest Iowa and are all Hawkeye fans. I really wanted to be the first in my family to attend the University of Iowa and as soon as Iowa offered me during my junior year of high school, I immediately committed. It was my dream school and it is where I want to be."

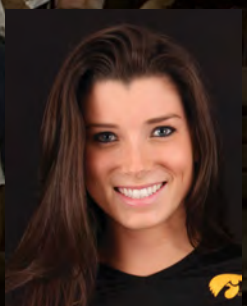

Alyssa Klostermann
Freshman

"I had always wanted to play high-competitive volleyball and there is nothing more intense than playing in the Big Ten. It's also close to home so my parents and other family members can come watch me play."

Erin Leppke
Junior

"I really liked the school and it reminded me of home. It was a home away from home."

Alessandra Dietz
Junior

"I'm a transfer, so I already knew two of the players from club volleyball, Alex Lovell and Erin Leppke. I really loved the school because it really felt like home to me."

Rachael Bedell
Senior

"When I came here, I really liked the coaches and the players and obviously the school. I'm majoring in journalism and the journalism program is outstanding here at Iowa."

Anne Yanda
Sophomore

"I have a lot of family here in Iowa and my parents both graduated from the University of Iowa. Also, the competition in the Big Ten Conference is the best."

RADIO - INTERNET BROADCASTS

Hawkeye volleyball fans across the country unable to attend the excitement at Carver-Hawkeye Arena can follow the Hawkeyes via the world wide web on Hawkeye All-Access, the audio/video webstream provided by hawkeyesports.com. Fans in the Iowa City area can hear live broadcasts of Iowa's home and away matches on AM-800 KXIC.

TELEVISION

With the launch of the Big Ten Network, the Big Ten became the first conference network in the country that has its own national network devoted to Big Ten athletics programming. NCAA volleyball fans can follow the Hawkeyes and their Big Ten cohorts on the network in stunning hi-definition. Fans can also watch a number of games, including home and away events, on Hawkeye All-Access and at BTN.com.

HAWKEYESPORTS.COM

Media and fans can obtain a wealth of up-to-date information about the Hawkeyes on the official web site of the University of Iowa -- hawkeyesports.com. Live stats (gametracker), box scores, play-by-play, photo galleries, coach and bio information, video, podcasts and more can be found on the web site. The volleyball team also has its own facebook site and twitter address.

Furthermore, hawkeyesports.com has a fresh look after the site was re-designed and re-launched in October 2010. The new and improved site has enhanced graphics, is easier to navigate, and has more content and video/audio for the diehard Hawkeye fan.

A joint venture between the Big Ten Conference and Fox Networks, BTN is the first internationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conferences in the country. With more than 800 events, all in HD, the 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country, allowing them to see their favorite team's volleyball matches, regardless of where they live.

Events include football, men's and women's basketball games; dozens of Big Ten Championship events; studio shows; coaches' shows; and classic games. The network televises and streams more Olympic sporting events and women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network.

Original programming highlights activities and accomplishments of some of the nation's finest universities. The groundbreaking Student U initiative provides real-world experience for students interested in careers in sports television. The network is available to more than 80 million homes across the United States and Canada, and currently has agreements with more than 300 affiliates, including AT&T U-Verse, Atlantic Broadband, Cablevision, Charter, Comcast, Cox, DirecTV, DISH Network, Insight, Mediacom, Rogers Cable (Canada), Shaw Cable and Shaw Direct (Canada), Time Warner Cable and Verizon FiOS. For updated information on BTN, go to www.BTN.com.

The University of Iowa volleyball team takes tremendous pride and enjoyment in its charity and community service activities.

Since Sharon Dingman took over the program in 2008, the Hawkeyes have been very active in the Iowa City Community. Iowa players have been actively involved in helping the Iowa Children's Museum, University of Iowa Dance Marathon, the Ronald McDonald House and the University of Iowa Children's Hospital.

The following is a list of just some of the community service activities the Hawkeye volleyball team has participated in throughout the Iowa City community.

- Assisted with the production of Baby Steps
- Proud supporter of the University of Iowa's Dance Marathon.
- Volunteer at the Iowa City Shelter House and Access 2 Independence to support the university's Day of Caring
- Volunteer at local elementary schools
- Team with Johnson Co. Pork Producers and Gamma Phi Sorority in a fundraiser for Heart Connections
- Volunteer at Greenwood Manor
- Read Across America
- Raised money for Baby Steps Donation Fund
- Breast Cancer Awareness
- Volunteer at the University of Iowa Children's Hospital

INDIVIDUAL SPORTS CAMPS

The University of Iowa Individual Volleyball Sports Camp is available for players of all skill levels in grades 5-12. The sports camp provides an opportunity for girls to experience the excitement surrounding Iowa Volleyball. The coaching staff works with all athletes, from beginners to elite level volleyball players, in a competitive environment. Coach Dingman and the Iowa coaching staff take pride in assisting all players as they take their skills to the next level.

LITTLE SPIKERS

The volleyball program also hosts the annual "Little Spikers" clinic for children grades K-8. Participants are able to join current Hawkeye players and staff and learn to "Play like the Hawks" by participating in basic volleyball activities using a special "Lite" volleyball and a lower net.

The Hawkeye volleyball camps provide an excellent opportunity for Hawkeye players and fans to interact and learn the game of volleyball while competing in a fun, instructional and fan-friendly environment.

IOWA WRESTLING

The Hawkeye wrestling team -- the national attendance leader in each of the last seven seasons -- continued its dominance on the mat, finishing fourth at the NCAA Championships. Four Hawkeyes earned All-America accolades in 2013, including national champion Derek St. John. Iowa has claimed 23 national championships and 34 Big Ten titles in its 103-year history.

IOWA FOOTBALL

Iowa football opened its 2012-13 season with a 4-2 start before dropping its final six contests of the season. Things are looking up in 2013-14 as the Hawkeyes return 14 starters, including its two leading rushers and four of five leading receivers on offense, and its top three tacklers on defense.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The women's basketball team made its 22nd trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2012-13, earning an at-large bid. The Hawkeyes entered as the No. 9 seed in their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Four student-athletes also received Big Ten conference recognition.

IOWA MEN'S TRACK AND FIELD

The men's track and field team earned four Big Ten titles, had 23 qualify for the NCAA Championships and ended the season with five earning first team All-American honors. The Hawkeyes also earned three individual titles and the 400-meter relay team title at the Big Ten Championships in 2012-13.

IOWA MEN'S GOLF

Head coach Mark Hankins led the Hawkeyes to a third place Big Ten finish and their fifth consecutive regional appearance in 2012-13. A pair of Hawkeyes, Steven Ihm and Joseph Winslow, earned All-Big Ten honors and were Division I PING All-Midwest Regional Team selections.

IOWA MEN'S BASKETBALL

Third-year head coach Fran McCaffery led the Hawkeyes to 23 wins and a runner-up finish in the NIT a year ago. Iowa improved by five wins from 2012 to 2013, as McCaffery continued to demonstrate his ability to rebuild programs and reenergize the fan base. Roy Devyn Marble and Aaron White earned third team All-Big Ten honors, while Eric May was a Big Ten Sportsmanship Award honoree.

IOWA SWIMMING AND DIVING

The Iowa men's swimming and diving team placed seventh at the Big Ten Championship and had six student-athletes compete at the NCAA Championships. For their efforts, the 400 medley relay team received honorable mention All-American recognition. Hawkeye women's swimming and diving placed 10th at the Big Ten Championships a year ago. Also, a total of four divers, three from the women's team and one from the men's squad, qualified for the NCAA Zone D Diving Championships.

45 percent of UI students are from out of state

Ten University of Iowa graduate programs and colleges ranked among the 10 best in the nation.
-U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2013

With over 30,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (4 %) ranks among the nation's lowest.
(May, 2012).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural Diversity at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center opened in the fall of 2003. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes. The facility is centrally located on the UI campus for easy access by all student-athletes and staff.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

When a student-athlete considers her future, she should consider prospects beyond volleyball. She should consider where she wants to be five, ten, fifteen years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, she should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields. They also pursued their academic studies as strongly as the Iowa Hawkeyes go after a loose ball or rebound.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.
Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.
